Featured Speaker:
The Honorable
Tim Philpot

Tim Philpot is a lifelong resident of Lexington, Kentucky. He graduated from the University of Kentucky in 1974 and attended law school there, receiving his J.D. in 1977. He was a courtroom attorney for more than 26 years, concentrating on employment law, family law and civil rights cases. In 1990, Tim was elected to the Kentucky State Senate where he served two terms until 1998. He was named "one of the ten best" legislators by the Lexington newspaper in 1992 - even though they repeatedly disagreed with him - saying there should be room on the list for "a man with a conscience." His strong stand on ethics led the paper to call him "a lone voice crying in the wilderness." In January 2004, Tim was appointed as Judge of Fayette Circuit Family Court and was re-elected to an eight year term in 2006 and, again, in 2014.
